

C By the Quene,

De Quenes most excellent Maiestie, wylleth all persons to vnderstande, that lyke as so; maintenance of her Realme, and the tytles and ryghtes therof, she hath continued in warre bytherto with the frenche kyng: So nowe vpon honorabile and reasonable conditions, accorded the .xi. of this moneth, by treatie betwixt her Embassadours, and the sayde frenche kynges, Her Maiestie hath also, to the honour of God, to the weale of her Realme, and preseruation of all her tytles and ryghtes thereto belongyng, assented to a perfect, good, and honorable peace, with the sayde frenche kyng. And therefore her Maiestie strayghtly chargeth and commandeth all maner of persons of her obaysance, to forbearre all hostilitie agaynst the Subiectes of the sayde frenche kyng her good brother, by disarrayng them selues and they; shippes, and to lyue in good peace with them, by mutuall entercourse and trade of marchaundize, as becommeth good neyghbours and freendes.

And so; that no impediment shoulde arysse to the entercourse, by reason of priuate offences committed by any of her Maiesties Subiectes, against the frenche kynges, by Lande or by Sea in this lasse warre, or in the doubtfull tymes before the same warre publyshed: Her Maiestie letteth all her Subiectes to vnderstande, that it is accorded betwixt her and her good brother the sayde frenche kyng, that none of her Subiectes shalbe impeched or molested, for the takyng, spoyleyng, or deteynyng of any ships, armure, marchaundize, victuall, or any other kynde of goodes belongyng to the frenche, from the first of September, in the yere of our Lorde God a thousande syue hundred threescore two, vntyll the tyme of the publication hereof, which is appoynted to be by the .xxiiii. of this present moneth of Aprill.

Seuen at Wyndso; the twentith day of Aprill, the sixth yere of her Maiesties raigne, 1564.

God sau the Quene.

C Imprinted by Richard Jugge and

John Calwood, Printers to the Quenes Maiestie.

Cum privilegio Regiae Maiestatis.